

SANGAM INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY SCHOOL OF NURSING

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Lecturer I/Assistant Professor in Midwifery

Position: Lecturer I/Assistant Professor – Midwifery Programme

Sangam School of Nursing invites applications from suitably qualified and experienced nursing and midwifery professionals for the position of Lecturer I/Assistant Professor in Midwifery at the SIT-School of Nursing, Labasa.

The successful applicant will coordinate the College's Postgraduate Diploma in Midwifery, deliver teaching and supervise clinical learning, and lead the development of a proposed Master's degree in Midwifery, including coordinating the processes required for its approval.

Key responsibilities

Coordinate the planning, delivery, assessment and ongoing review of the Postgraduate Diploma in Midwifery.

Teach midwifery and related subjects using evidence-informed, student-centred approaches.

Coordinate clinical placements and maintain effective partnerships with health services and clinical supervisors.

Lead the development of the proposed Master's degree in Midwifery, including its curriculum, learning outcomes, assessment framework and programme documentation.

The person may also be required to undertake a leadership role of the Campus.

Essential qualifications and experience

Applicants must have:

A Bachelor's degree in Nursing and a Master's qualification in Midwifery, Nursing or a closely related discipline from a recognised institution.

At least 15 years of combined professional experience in nursing and midwifery, with substantial experience in midwifery practice.

Current professional registration as a nurse and midwife, or eligibility for registration in Fiji.

Demonstrated ability to teach, mentor and assess students and supervise clinical learning.

Strong programme coordination, communication, leadership and organisational skills.

The ability to lead postgraduate curriculum development and coordinate programme approval processes.

Remuneration

Salary and conditions of appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

How to apply

Applicants should submit a detailed cover letter addressing the essential qualifications, experience and responsibilities along with a detailed curriculum vitae. Applicants should also attach copies of academic qualifications and evidence of professional registration and provide contact details for three professional referees.

Applications should be addressed to ceo@sangamfiji.com.fj. Closing date: 10/11/26.